

STANLEY CARROLL'S Audacious Style

Stanley Carroll

After a four-year absence from Edmonton's fashion scene, Stanley Carroll previewed his spring/summer collection recently at Savoy on Whyte to an enthusiastic crowd.

Anyone familiar with Carroll's work would have instantly recognized his signature intricate eye, fluid shapes that flow on the body.

For both men's and women's collections, Carroll used a primarily neutral palette with bursts of intense colour. (The black-and-white striped tunic shirt shown here is also available in a brilliant yellow and black combo.)

Fabrics such as silk and linen imported from Belgium and his native Holland provide a tactile interest to complement the visual.

For those wishing to make a style statement, Carroll obliged with fun and quirky hand-knitted tops and sarongs for men.
